

BIRMINGHAM - Congressman and Mrs. Spencer Bachus announced that Shy'Ailah Rutledge, a fifth grade student at Erwin Elementary School, has been selected as the cover artist for the 2009 Holiday Card Call for Art.

The program provides a creative outlet for talented students with visual impairments.

All of the participants in this year's program were honored at a reception hosted by Congressman and Mrs. Bachus and the University of Alabama at Birmingham School of Optometry Vision Science Research Center at the Homewood Public Library today.

"These students have captured the spirit of the Christmas season by sharing their talents with us. The originality and diversity of their artwork is truly inspiring. It is a privilege to be able to recognize these gifted and loving children," Bachus said.

The UAB School of Optometry Vision Science Research Center sponsors the Holiday Card Call for Art. In 1993, Congressman and Mrs. Bachus began using the original art in their holiday card to highlight the accomplishments of local students. The cards are received by more than 7,000 people.

Shy'Ailah, who is eleven years old, was selected as the winner of the contest for her artwork entitled "My Snowman," an acrylic on canvas. Her art teacher at Erwin Elementary School is Amanda McDonald. The principal at the school is Mike Barlow.

The student artwork is on display throughout the holiday season in the lobby of the Worrell Building on 924 18th Street in Birmingham.
